

Help build Pittsburgh's Housing Justice Movement!

November 9-10, 2018, University of Pittsburgh

Housing is a human right!

Join us for workshops, cultural activities, and panel discussions aimed at building the local housing justice and tenants' rights movement. Learn about the causes of the affordable housing crisis and the solutions emerging from communities around the world.

Friday November 9

12:30-2:00PM "Democracy for Social Emancipation: Lessons from Around the World" Gianpaolo Baiocchi, director of the Urban Democracy Lab at New York University and author of We the Sovereign (Radical Futures) and the national Homes for All Coalition report: Communities Over Commodities: People-Driven Alternatives To an Unjust Housing System

6:00PM – Opening program, poetry slam, food, music, Salem's Banquet Hall 2911 Penn Ave. (Strip District) Pittsburgh, PA 15201

Saturday November 10

9:00-4:30PM (Doors/refreshments 8AM) The Affordable Housing Crisis in Pittsburgh and Beyond. Panel & Workshops: Know your rights, democratizing local development, movement building and intersections, community organizing. Location: Frick Fine Arts Building, University of Pittsburgh

Housing Summit Organizing Coalition: Hill District Consensus Group, Landless People's Alliance, Homes for All Pittsburgh, Human Rights City Alliance, Penn Plaza Support and Action Network, University of Pittsburgh Human Rights Working Group, Pitt Students Advancing Communities Together (ACT), Urbankind Institute

Free! Everyone is Welcome!

Childcare available

For more details see www.housingsummitpgh.org